Meeting, to give a written report of its administration and of the Companys position, as well as present the auditors report after auditing the accounts. The following questions are then to be decided on: a) such as are occasioned by the reports of the Directors or auditors. b) whether discharge shall be granted to the Board as far as the Companys rights are concerned. c) regarding the election of members of the Board and its deputies. d) concerning the electing of auditors and deputies. 25. Should a private shareholder desire to submit some special question or proposal for discussion at the Companys ordinary Meeting, he is to give a written statement of the same at least one month before the Meeting takes place. In no other than the above mentioned way may such shareholder, in the intervals between the Meetings influence, still less interfere with the management of the Companys affairs, nor may he call the Direction to account for its operations in one respect or another. This clause at first ran as follows: The Direction is bound at the ordinary Meeting to give a written report of its administration and of the Companys position, as well as present the auditors report after auditing the accounts. The following questions are then to be decided on: a) such as are occasioned by the reports of the Directors and the auditors. b) whether approval shall be granted to the Board, as far as the Companys rights...
