Footsteps in History (Paperback)

By Behr Hampson

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 211 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In August 2005, I entered the Shearer Cemetery for the first time. It took 15 minutes, beating through brush and vines, to reach the middle where only the gravestone of Martha Lee was found. A few weeks later, I discussed the experience with my Michigan History students. They were quite interested in checking it out. After my class visited the cemetery, two students returned having discovered the buried stone of Hiram Jerome Tibbits. Hiram died August 23, 1832, before reaching the age of ten. This stone was our first major find and would spark continued interest among my students in restoring this Pioneer site. Twice during our research we acquired outstanding primary resources. The first was from Mr. James Curtis, who owns the original Tibbits house in Plymouth. He sent us a speech that Mr. John S. Tibbits gave to the Pioneer Society of Michigan on July 27, 1873. The second resource was a random needle in the haystack. As I was looking through the Plymouth Mail in the Plymouth Historical Museum in the summer of 2006, I spotted a...
