What We Witnessed IT will be best, I think, to give the programme of the Play, and then comment on it in detail. From 8 a.m. to 11.30 a.m. it proceeds without a break, and then an hour and a half is allowed for luncheon and rest. The Play resumes at the stroke of one o'clock by the cannon, and goes on for another four and a half hours to the end. Omitting the interval, the performance takes eight hours in all. The interval is between the first and second divisions in the following programme: -- Ifirst Division PROLOGUE Tableaux 1. Adam and Eve expelled Paradise. 2. The Redemption--Adoration of the Cross. ACT I Griumpbal Entrg into Jerusalem Scenes 1. Christ casts out the money-lenders from the Temple. 2. Priests and people. 3. Dathan and the money-changers. ACT II assemble of tbe...
