HAIKU OF THE NOW

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 108 pages. If a picture is worth a thousand words, a haiku poem should be worth at least two or three hundred. Being able to express profound emotion and clear perception in no more than seventeen syllables, this traditionally Japanese short poetic form has for decades had its own place in the vast world of English literature. Haiku bear a great resemblance to photographs. Similarly, they can recreate an impromptu reflection of reality, of the...
