Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Stentor, Vol. 12: Lake Forest, Ill, Nov; 30, 1897 Several times lately it has been noticed and commented on that the reading-room has lost its mournfully quiet manners, and has developed within itself the appearance of holiday jubilation. These great changes have assumed the forms of pyramids, built after the approved designs of the late esteemed Cheops, and the Tower of Babel pattern has also been in evidence. But let us just use a word of advice to those who have thus disturbed this quiet sanctuary in such a sacrilegious manner. To the students who look upon this amusing disruption as it seems nothing more than a prank, and occasions a smile, but do the ones who may chance to look in on these scenes of confusion as outsiders, consider them in the same way as we? There was a time when the reading room was closed because all the furniture was demolished and indications led the authorities to think that the room itself was in danger of suffering the same as the furniture. Let us not give the authorities occasion for closing this room again. There is a complaint which has been heard in Lake Forest, in athletics especially, for some years in regard to the disinterestedness of our Alumni. An example of loyalty was given this fall by Mr. Fred Hayner which we hope will be remembered for some time. Mr. Hayner has given valuable services all fall in coaching the football team through its season; and the Stentor now knows that it voices the sentiments of the students in expressing to Mr. Hayner the thanks of all for his work. Mr....
