Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Letter Addressed to the Right Honorable Lord John Russell: Containing Facts Illustrative of the Good Effects From the Just and Considerate Discharge of the Duties of a Resident Landlord in Ireland Will you, my Lord, allow this stain to remain a blot on the pages of England s History? no, I cannot believe that you will - nor that the teaching of centuries, and especially the transactions of the last Ten Tears will be thrown away, and not produce in your intelligent mind, a conviction of the necessity for measures that shall bring comfort and happiness to a people, hitherto so lamentably neglected as the Irish have been by all of England s Rulers. In this address, I will briefly endeavour to set before your Lordship some of the Social Evils under which my Country labours, and at the same time point out some remedies. I shall only remark on those which I have myself been the active instrument in applying remedies for, which have been found effectual. The relation of Landlord and Tenant, is at the root of almost all the good and evil destinies, to which my fellow Countrymen are subject. Land, is unfortunately, our only Manufacture, - to its bad or good management, therefore, must be attributed the bad or good condition of those who are destined to live by its cultivation, and when a large proportion of those are avowedly wretchedly poor, the question naturally arises - why is this so? - so long as the Vice of Drunkenness made our Island to be lightly spoken of, the answer was easily given; but the change that has come over the habits...
